9:00 a. m.—The parade will leave Ala Park, headed by Grand Marshal Robert P. Waipa, his aides and the Hawaiian band, and will proceed along King street to the Judiciary building, where it will encircle the statue of Kamehameha I. Unveiling ceremonies will be conducted at this time.

cluding canoe and swimming the Hawaiian branch of the A. A. U.

7:00 p. m.—Bowling party for 8:00 p. m.—Great ball at the National Guard armory, the closing event of the Kamehameha Day celebration.

Beginning with a spectacular parade the Hawaiian societies and other local organizations, including historical pageants in the palace grounds and at the public baths at Waikiki, and closing with a ball in the National Guard armory at 8 o'clock in the evening, the celebration tomorrow of Kamehameha Day will undoubtedly be the most complete and successful observation of its kind ever held in Hawaii. Due to the untiring work of a joint committee composed of members of the Hawaiian societies, and headed by Edgar Henriques as chairman, an elaborate program of events has been prepared and it was announced this morning that everything is in readiness for the celebration.

The chairman of committee are:
Chairman general committee, John C. Lane.

Chairman parade committee, Edgar Henriques.

Chairman ball committee, John C.
Anderson.

Chairman Waikiki pageant, Mrs.
Edgar Henriques.

The speech in English during the morning exercises will be delivered by Rev. Akaka Akana and the speech in Hawaiian by the Rev. S. L. Desha.

The parade alone will be a feature in itself, and the historical pageants will be events which kamaaina and malihini alike cannot well afford to miss.

The joint committee has requested the Star-Bulletin to make public the fact that every event of the lengthy program will be free, it being the idea of the committee to bring something novel and attractive without having to consider the old question of finances. Even the statue of Kamehameha the Great, which stands in front of the Judiciary building, has not been neglected. His royal feather robes have been cleared of the stain of years and burnished with shining bronze, and the pedestal upon which he stands has been touched up by the decorator in a manner which gives it a peculiar air of newness. The unveiling of the statue will form a part of the exercises tomorrow, as well as the decoration with leis and flowers.

Promptly at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning the parade will leave Ala Park, headed by Captain Robert Parker Waipa, the grand marshal, and his aides. After him will come a cordon of mounted police and the band of the 1st Regiment, N. G. H., under the leadership of Capt. Henri Bergner, and the following Hawaiian societies, in full uniform: Hui Ka-

KINGSBURY WILL COME TOMORROW, SAY HIS FRIENDS

Maui Judge Expected to Appear Voluntarily to Answer Charges Just Filed

Judge Selden B. Kingsbury of Maui, against whom serious charges have been preferred by Eugene Murphy, the Waikuku attorney, is expected to arrive here tomorrow morning, voluntarily appearing before Chief Justice A. G. M. Robertson to make answer to the accusations that have been brought against him, and ask that an investigation be made into the affairs of his court. Friends of Judge Kingsbury in the city make this statement today.

Justice Robertson has not so far taken any action that is known on the charges. He was occupied this morning with arguments on a petition for a restraining order in the Kewaio reclamation project. But while no action has been taken on the Murphy charges, the business of Deputy County Attorney Vincent here has become complicated, so complicated that he does not know whether he will be able to leave for Waikuku on the next steamer or whether he will be required to stay here and start mandamus proceedings against Judge Kingsbury.

Vincent came here to urge the attorney-general to force Judge Kingsbury to issue a writ in the case of Mary Ann Peters, who was sentenced some time ago, but who has not been confined in jail. As a result of Vincent's visit here, a wireless message was sent to the judge yesterday afternoon by the attorney-general instructing him to issue the writ; and a reply to this message was received by the attorney-general stating that the writ had been issued. But this morning Vincent received a wireless from County Attorney Case asserting that the writ had not been issued.

The deputy county attorney is waiting for a second wireless, and if this confirms the information contained in the first, he is said to be ready to start mandamus proceedings at once.
Charges Are Explicit.

One of the charges made against Judge Kingsbury is that he caused the county to pay the attorney fee incurred by him in a habeas corpus proceeding before the supreme court. The fee, which was paid to the firm of Holmes, Stanley & Olson, amounted to $50, and was paid by a warrant, authorized by the judge, on the county of Maui, it is alleged. Attorney Murphy holds that this is a clear case of malfeasance, as the county authorities had not given him permission to employ private counsel in the case at the cost of the county.

The case of Lucy Akiona Ah Sam, which has attracted the attention of the supreme court before, is brought up again as the basis of a charge. The person was a delinquent child and was confined in the Malahini hospital.
Judge Kingsbury, in an affidavit, is declared to have denied that he took any action in the case, or was concerned in the removal of the girl. A certified copy of this affidavit is filed with a counter one made by Sister Helene of the hospital, who swears that the child was placed in the hospital at the instance and under the direction of Judge Kingsbury.

Attorney Murphy wishes the supreme court to investigate into his charges. If he refuses, he says he will go on to Washington and there prosecute his case against the judge, who, he says, he "will get."

The payment of the $50 attorney fee and the affidavit in the Lucy Akiona Ah Sam case seems to make up the gist of the charges. Murphy brands the $50 transaction as a misappropriation of county funds to the judge's own personal uses, and the other as an affavit untrue in many of its affirma-tions.

On the handle of a wire basket in which eggs may be boiled is mounted a sand glass for timing them.

U. S. ATTORNEY McCARN INDICTED

Territorial Grand Jury Takes Action After Probe

Report Charges Assault With Weapon Obviously and Imminently Dangerous to Life—True Bill Placed on Open File

United States District Attorney Jeff McCarn was indicted by the territorial grand jury this afternoon, when a true bill was returned against him in a report made to Circuit Judge William J. Robinson. The report was placed on the open file.

The indictment is returned as the result of the encounter between McCarn and Attorney Claudius McBride of Hilo in the hall of the federal court. The indictment charges "assault with a weapon obviously and imminently dangerous to life."

The report was made at 3 o'clock this afternoon, the jury having been in session since 1:30. Joseph Gilman is foreman of the jury.

When Mr. McCarn was informed by the Star-Bulletin of the action of the grand jury this afternoon he refused to make a statement. "I have nothing to say about it—not a word."

DELEGATE KUHIO DEFINITELY OUT FOR REELECTION

Hawaii's Representative in Congress Makes Announcement of His Intentions

Delegate J. Kuhio Kalaniana'ole this morning issued a written announcement of his candidacy to succeed himself as Hawaii's representative in congress.

The announcement has been expected for some days. The delegate, who has been at Waialua for a few days, returned this morning and the announcement was given out by him shortly afterward.

There were rumors last week that in his statement he would definitely pledge himself to run on the Republican ticket and abide by the results of the primaries, but the announcement today does nothing of the kind. He addresses the electors at large and refers to himself only indirectly as a Republican.

The announcement says:
"To the Electors of the Territory of Hawaii:

"Gentlemen—This time seems now opportune in which to express to you my sincere appreciation of the confidence which you have reposed in me in the past, as evidenced by six successive elections, as your representative in the federal Congress at Washington."

"During my long service in that body, as your representative, it has been my aim to consult your wishes and to advance and promote the interests of Hawaii. In this effort I have not always succeeded to the extent of my desires, despite the sincerity of my wishes and endeavors.
But, on the whole, I believe I may fairly lay claim to at least as great a measure of success as usually falls to the lot of a representative in that house."

"Unfortunately and unexpectedly I was obliged to temporarily abandon my duties at Washington during the winter last past and, upon the advice of my physician, to seek a milder climate in the hope of a speedy recovery of my health, which had been taken suddenly and unexpectedly affected. A sojourn of several weeks at Paso Robles, in California, was disappointing in its effects, and I was further obliged, upon medical advice, to return to sunny Hawaii, where our own incomparable climate has, happily, so far restored my health, that I may hope to return to Washington in the near future if the present session of Congress shall be prolonged."

"Since my return to Hawaii, I have been urged by many loyal friends who have supported me in the past, to again permit my name to go before the electors as a candidate for re-election to Congress in November next, and after mature deliberation I have consented to become such candidate."

"Believing, as I do, that the best interests of this territory require that it be represented in Congress by a Republican, and further believing that my experience in Congress during nearly 12 years last past may be fruitful of good results in my endeavors to further promote the interests of Hawaii at the nation's capital, I hereby respectfully announce myself as a candidate for your suffrages at the ensuing election; and I promise, if you again honor me with your confidence, that my best endeavors shall be exerted in your behalf."

"Very respectfully, your obedient servant,"

"J. KALANIANA'OLE.
"Delegate in Congress from Hawaii."
"Honolulu, Hawaii, June 10, 1914."

"BUD" FOSTER DEAD

John W. Caldwell, superintendent of public works, received word from Havana today of the death of "Bud" Foster, a well-known engineer in this territory. He was an engineer under the Hawaii loan fund commission for some time, and was associated with H. K. Bishop in the belt road work on that island.

STACKABLE IS NOT GOING TO BACK DOWN NOW

Second Demand for His Resignation Meets Firm Refusal—Mainlander Stated

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 10.—At the treasury department today it was said that no charges are made against Mr. Stackable, but that the administration desires a collector more in sympathy with it.

Collector of Customs E. R. Stackable definitely declines to submit the resignation now twice demanded by Secretary of the Treasury William G.
McAdoo.

Yesterday afternoon Collector Stackable received a rather curt telegram from Secretary McAdoo in which he repeated the collector's resignation by cable, that the step was taken in the interests of the service but that no reflection upon Mr. Stackable's character was implied. While the collector did not wish to discuss the matter today in any detail, it is learned that he adheres to his previous determination not to resign and is so informing Secretary McAdoo by cable.
He takes the position that to quit on such terms would be equivalent to an admission of misconduct in office or incompetency.

Collector Stackable's term expires on August 1, 1916. Shortly after President Wilson took office, news was sent out from Washington that federal officers who were competent and deserving would be allowed to serve their terms out, even though Republicans. The hurry to displace Collector Stackable is generally taken as evidence that some office-seeker on the mainland has been slated for the local position.

The commercial bodies have already affirmed their support of Mr.
Stackable and nearly 200 local firms and business men, practically all in Honolulu, have signed individual indorsements of his work and administration of office.

It is generally believed that when he is displaced a mainlander will be named.

Collector Stackable has been in his present position nearly 14 years, or sanitizing the local district when Hawaii was annexed. He has been in the customs service here for fifteen years and his administration has repeatedly been praised by treasury officials.

PROGRESS IN WARD CASE

Considerable progress was made this morning in the damage suit of George E. Ward against the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company. Dr.
James Judd was put on the stand by the defendant to testify to the physical condition of the plaintiff. Ward was injured while engaged by the company, and by his action he seeks to recover damages for his injuries to the amount of $50,000. The case is on trial before Judge Robinson.

FIRE ON ASTOR YACHT CAUSES CHANGE IN PLANS

(By Latest Mail)

HAMILTON (Bermuda), June 1.— Fire in the coal bunkers of the yacht Noma has dislocated the honeymoon schedule of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Astor. The fire was more obstinate than serious, but not to invite any serious risk the Astors have concluded to leave the yacht here and return to New York on the Bermudian. The yacht has caused its owner much anxiety, notwithstanding her expensive overhauling and refitting before leaving New York.

The Astors do not make steam casing and when she reaches New York she will go into dry dock. According to present plans, the Astors will carry out the European stage of their honey-moon on a transatlantic liner, leaving the yacht to follow later.

ANOTHER DEAL IN BREAKWATER CONTRACT MADE

Richard Deming Purchases Plant in Interest of Contractor Marshall

The last obstacle in the way of Hilo breakwater construction was removed today with the purchase by Richard Deming, vice president of the American Surety Co., of all quarry rights at Kapoho and Waiala, and all material, stores and equipment owned by the now-defunct Breakwater Company of Philadelphia. The purchase, according to Mr. Deming, is made entirely in the interest of George E. Marshall, who has taken over the contract for completing the superstructure of the breakwater. The American Surety Company continues on the bond of the new contractors.

Rock will fly in the near future, for with the arrival of some additional equipment ordered from San Francisco, Marshall will be ready to proceed with the work. A mass of construction material, including derricks, hoists, locomotives, tug boats and railway equipment, shipped to the Deming-Marshall combination in the deal just completed, but Marshall plans to use locomotive cranes in placing the heavy cap and slope rock, and these must come from the coast.

The Kapoho quarry, controlled by the Lord-Young Engineering Co., has been the key to the breakwater situation recently, owing to the size and quality of the rock contained. With this and the nearby Waiala quarry to draw from, the new contractor should have no difficulty in getting through with the job.

Mr. Deming leaves for Hilo tomorrow. Through his efforts the unfortunate tangle growing out of the failure of the Breakwater Company to go through with its contract has been straightened out, and Hilo is in line for the completion of its harbor improvement. The equipment purchased by Mr. Deming was held by the Coast and Lakes Construction Co., assignees of the Philadelphia Breakwater outfit.

LAKEVIEW GUSHER AT FIRST OF MONTH

The following is from the San Francisco Chronicle of June 1:
The Lakeview No. 2 Oil Company still has its hands full caring for the production of its great gusher in the Maricopa field, which was brought in May 10. The well, which is still running beyond control, has produced over 800,000 barrels of oil since it started on its wild career and it is setting a new high production record, with the possible exception of the Lakeview 1911 gusher, which yielded as high as 60,000 barrels a day, when the flow was at its best. After three weeks of activity the Lakeview No. 2 is still producing approximately 50-000 barrels a day.

The reports sent out from the field a week ago, saying that the flow was turning to emulsion, have been partially substantiated, but the percentage of sediment in the production is less than at first stated. The oil coming from the well in marketable condition is being cared for by the Standard Company, but some of the production contains about 12 per cent of sedimentary impurities. This impure oil or "emulsion" has to be treated before it can be marketed, and it is being stored in tanks and reservoirs until a treating plant now in course of construction is completed. It will cost but a few cents a barrel to clarify the oil, and if the process to be tried out is successful, the company will be able to realize between $10,000 and $15,000 a day from the sale of its production.

If the first clarifying plant proves efficient, others will be erected near the reservoirs on the company's property. It is estimated that these plants will cost about $30,000. The Standard Company already has several pipe lines taking oil of the marketable oil, and it is ready to handle the stockpile in storage after they have been subjected to treatment.

Worry is part of the price a man pays for living.

BULL MOOSE LEADERS IN ROW; GEORGE W. PERKINS DENOUNCED BY A. PINCHOT

Financier and Former Morgan Partner Declared to Be Drawback to Progressive Party—Said to Mean Hostility of Union Labor

[Associated Press service by Federal Wireless.] NEW YORK, N. Y., June 10.—George W. Perkins, multi-millionaire and former Morgan partner, is denounced as a serious handicap to the Progressive party in a letter made public today by Amos Pinchot, brother of former Chief Forester Gifford Pinchot.
Amos Pinchot has published a confidential letter addressed to Col.
Roosevelt and the national committeemen denouncing Perkins, who is prominent in the Bull Moose organization and was active in the last presidential campaign. The letter says that Perkins' corporation affiliations advocate private monopoly in hostility to union labor, producing a situation "which must be terminated before the party can command popular support. The present position is false and fatal."

Mediators Are Deadlocked Over Huerta's Successor; Opinions Badly Divided

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., June 10.—The mediators are deadlocked over the choice of a successor to President Victoriano Huerta. The outcome is impossible to foretell. The conflict of opinion seems serious.

Resolute Shows Best in Tri- Cornered Trial Race Today

NEW YORK, N. Y., June 10.—The yacht Resolute again showed superiority today, sailing with a speed that makes her a strong possibility as defender of the America's cup. She defeated the Vanitie in a 25-mile windward-leeward race over the Sandy Hook course by four minutes without a time allowance.
The defiance, of whom much was expected, had trouble with her untried rigging and was hopelessly beaten. Experts say she will do much better when her rigging is tuned up.

NEW YORK, N. Y., June 10.—The regatta committee announced this afternoon that the Resolute's time over the America's cup course, 3 hours 16 minutes 40 seconds, is the fastest ever sailed.

"Movie" Men Swarm When Roosevelt's Son is Married

MADRID, Spain, June 10.—Miss Belle Willard, daughter of U. S. Ambassador and Mrs. Joseph Willard, was united in marriage by a civil cermony today to Kermit Roosevelt, son of Col. and Mrs. Roosevelt. The moving picture men swarmed while the ceremony and its attendant features were occurring. A religious ceremony will be performed Thursday.

Many Killed and Injured in New York Tenement Fire

NEW YORK, June 10.—Eight people were killed and 33 injured in a fire today that partially destroyed an ancient east side tenement house.

Toll Bill Amendment is Adopted

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 10.—The senate today adopted the Simmons-Norris amendment to the canal tolls repeal bill by a vote of 50 to 24.

CHILDREN CAN'T PLAY ANY MORE AT EMMA SQUARE

Edict Issued By Mayor Fern Upon Complaint of Bishop Restarick

Children to the number of several score, residing in the vicinity of Emma Square and near St. Andrew's cathedral, have been deprived of the pleasure of Emma Square as a place to play baseball and indulge in other games of an afternoon, as the result of an edict recently issued by Mayor J. J. Fern. The edict proclaims that the children shall not use Emma Square as a baseball field and was put into force by the mayor upon the request of Bishop Henry Bond Restarick, the latter complaining that the children were too noisy, that they were liable to break windows with their baseballs, and that they were wearing out the lawn by their constant trampling upon it.

"There is very little to say regarding the matter," said the Bishop this morning. "I took it up with the mayor and he forbade children playing in the square, so the affair is closed. The children were exceedingly noisy, were wearing out the lawn, and the windows nearby were in constant danger of being broken by baseballs. I do not believe that Emma Square should be used as a baseball field. There are other places for the children to play—the Central Grammar school grounds, for instance. I understand, also, that the children who used to play there came not only from the vicinity of Emma street, but from other districts as well."

Therefore, for a while at least, those children who have been in the habit of adjourning each day to Emma Square for an afternoon of enjoyment —and baseball—will have to seek another place to rid themselves of their enthusiasm.
Emma Square is a public park.

WALL NAILS RUMOR

William A. Wall, whose appointment to the position of city and community engineer as the successor of L. H.
Whitehouse, is conceded in the municipal building, and who is slated to be superintendent of the water works and sewer system as well, knocked the spots out of the rumor this morning that a split on the question of salary was the cause of Mayor J. J.
Fern's refusal to submit his name last night at a meeting of the board of superiority.

"We are agreed on the amount of the salary. The only reason I know that my name wasn't sent in last night was because three supervisors were absent and the mayor wished a full board present when the appointment was made. I have no policies or plans to make known now. The board and I have talked the situation over and we understand one another."

NO STAR-BULLETIN

In accordance with its custom, the Star-Bulletin will not issue tomorrow, Kamehameha Day.

hair on the back of her head that it tilts her chin up.
